Welcome to the 19th Annual West Virginia Beef Expo Angus Sale.

These consignors have put together an attractive offering for this years sale.

They have gone a step further in that animals that are potential carriers for AM (curley calf) will be tested before the sale. Those testing positive will not sell. As the American Angus Association has stated " they want to remove this problem as soon as practicable, utilizing the best science available as an ally in the effort and to protect our valued customers."

Registration paper from the AAA have lots of different EPD' and values. A possible 13 are on the pedigrees that follow.

Go to www.angus.org - data search -EPD lookup for additional information

See you at the EXPO
